

REAGLE MUSIC THEATRE

“Keep the Music Playing!”

August, 2014

Dear Friend,

We all hope you enjoyed one or all three of our summer shows; South Pacific, Me and My Girl, and Singin' in the Rain. One reviewer captured the essence of what we have been doing for forty-six years, “Reagle Music Theatre refuses to cut corners, engaging large well turned-out casts, employing a full-sized professional orchestra, mounting superbly choreographed show numbers, and maintaining solid production values in sound, lighting, and scenic design.”

Another wrote, “You won’t get a more affordable seat at a Broadway-quality show than at RMT,” and “Singin' in the Rain is an absolute home run from start to finish – from casting to choreography to costuming – and it is a shining example of just how good regional theatre productions can be.”

One more exclaimed “Reagle traditionally has hired top-notch directors, choreographers, musicians, and award-winning performers, bought Broadway original sets and costumes, and filled Robinson Theatre’s stage with dazzling, lavish shows, rivaling those of national touring companies and well-known venues.”

All of this comes, unfortunately, with a hefty price tag – not covered by our modest ticket prices. If you enjoy our shows, please consider a donation to assure that the Music Keeps Playing at Reagle Music Theatre.

Sincerely,

Robert J. Eagle, Producing Artistic Director
